

WEST VALLEY CITY
Community Development Block Grant Program
(CDBG) Application Guidelines
FY2010-2011

General Rules

All applications must comply with the regulations of the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program found in 24 CFR Part 570 and described in the specific guidelines below.

Who May Apply

Any individual, for-profit or nonprofit organization, business, or governmental agency may apply for City CDBG funds. (For-profit and non-profit economic development ventures are only eligible for loans.) Applicants must be in compliance with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations.

Project Requirements

ALL PROJECTS MUST:

Meet one of the three national objectives of the CDBG Program:

- To provide benefit to low- and moderate-income persons (those whose income is at or below 80% of the median income for Salt Lake County),
- To aid in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight,
- Or to meet a particular urgent community development need.

Be located in West Valley City or demonstrate that the project beneficiaries reside within West Valley City.

Address one or more of the Objectives stated in the Five-Year West Valley City Consolidated Plan.

Be identified as an eligible CDBG activity in one of the following four categories: Housing, Economic development, Public services, or Public infrastructure.

ALL APPLICANTS MUST:

Have available proof of corporate authorization, such as a board resolution, to request funds.

For applicants seeking Public Service funds only, limit applications to no more than $12,000. Applications requesting more funding than $12,000 must identify additional approved funding sources as part of the application.

For applicants seeking Economic Development assistance only, submit proposals under the sponsorship of a financial institution or development corporation that provides funding at least equal to the amount of CDBG assistance being sought.

Funding Process

The total allocation for West Valley City is anticipated to be $ 950,000 for FY2010. Of this amount, $191,000 can be allocated for program administration and for activities to promote fair housing, $143,000 can be allocated to Public Service activities, $280,000 for repayment of the Section "108" loan, and the balance for other eligible CDBG activities.

Applications are due by 5:00 PM, November 19, 2009

In summary, the application, review and award schedule is:
